MINE TRAIN BLOWN UP

WHITESVILLE, W. VA., July 14.—(By the Associated Press)—The mine train was blown up today when a mine train, carrying them to work near Mordine ran into a dynamite trap and was destroyed. The mine, owned by the Mordine Collieries Company, has been operating under protection of a federal court injunction since June 1.

A gasoline truck, pushing three trailer cars up a steep grade to the mine on Big Elk Run, opposite here, exploded today. The train had progressed only a short distance when it ran into the dynamite trap. The explosion blew the first two trailers to bits and badly damaged the one on which the eleven miners were seated.

H. C. Curves, in front of the others, met instant death. Four other miners were badly injured and were taken to a hospital here. C. C. Lewis, superintendent of the mine, was driving the truck. He was injured slightly, but his leg was broken. Lewis said that the explosion was so terrific it

Miners' Chiefs To Reject Harding's Plan

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 14.—(By the Associated Press)—It became definitely known today that John L. Lewis, president of the United Mine Workers of America, and other national officers of the union, who have been negotiating with the government since President Harding offered arbitration to settle the coal strike, are preparing to recommend to their associates at the head of the various union organizations that the government's plan be rejected.

The decision was made today after Mr. Lewis and the union national officials had again consulted with officials concerned at the department of labor.

Ever since the president's offer of arbitration was laid before the union leaders gathered in Washington, the effort has been made by them to get definite assurances from the government that the arbitration would be applied to all the bituminous area which the union considers within its scope, including parts of West Virginia and Pennsylvania, where coal is still being mined. Although Mr. Lewis and the district presidents of the United Mine Workers refused to give the union's answer to the president's proposal until the general policy committee of the mine workers and its entire membership of 120 could be assembled, demand was made to the president through Secretary Davis that some assurance be given that the semi-union and non-union fields, where the strike has made some progress, be included.

A second request made to the president, was that working conditions under the previous wage contracts, including the "check off" system of collecting union dues, be not included in the arbitration.

While no announcement has been forthcoming officially, the union men were definite today in asserting that the responses they had received today were unsatisfactory.

The bituminous operators likewise have presented protests to the president's arbitration plan, based largely upon the continuation of wage scales of 1920-22 during the period arbitration is in progress. There were intimations today that one group of Pennsylvania operators would flatly refuse to accept the proposition, and general indications that other bituminous operators would attempt to insist upon modifications. Anthracite employers have accepted the president's proposals practically without condition, though pointing out that their market position is very different from that of the bituminous operators and that they are without intermittency in operation and without great diversification and distribution of mines.

Deadlock At The Hague

THE HAGUE, July 14.—(By the Associated Press)—The sub-commission on credits of the conference on Russian affairs, in which a last chance for breaking the deadlock in the conference was believed to remain, failed to reach an agreement after a three-hour session today, and Russian and non-Russian alike agreed that there was practically no chance of continuing the conference.

THE HAGUE, July 14.—(By the Associated Press)—No further joint meetings with the Russians will be held by the conferees in Russian affairs unless the soviet representatives make known a desire to submit new proposals, it was decided this afternoon. The non-Russian representatives will continue their meetings and they plan to hold a plenary session to adjourn the conference, probably next Wednesday.

Want Troops In Perry County

CINCINNATI, O., July 14.—"We are here for the purpose of asking the court to send federal troops into Perry county to protect lives and property. At the present time there is no protection being given and we believe the government wants to take care of the lives and property of its citizens."

Attorney Lowry F. Sater, of Columbus, made this statement today when he appeared in the U. S. district court prepared to present to U. S. Judge Peck his demand for the presence of the government at the mines of the Consolidated Coal and Coke Company, in Perry county.

Sater said that the order of U. S. District Judge Sater, of Columbus, in the case, has not been enforced. He said that no federal deputies have been sent to the mines and that the sheriff and his men had made any more to afford protection.

"I have tried to appeal to Governor Davis, but all in vain," Sater said. "He has refused even to see us and has done nothing that would help in preserving law and order in this community. We are asking for federal troops as a last resort."

Judge Peck ordered the company to file a formal application with the court setting forth the facts in the case. The court also ordered Governor Davis and the sheriff of Perry county, where the mine is located, to have representatives appear before the court July 24.

Hurled On Top Of Engine; Clings To Stack

Thrown from the car he was driving to the top of the locomotive, he clung to the smokestack and when the train stopped at a station 150 yards from the scene of the accident, he climbed down. Except for minor bruises, he was unharmed.

A woman was killed and a woman and a man were injured seriously in the accident.

King Boris Admires American Women—But Not For A Wife

SOFIA, BULGARIA, July 14.—(By the Associated Press)—Despairing of finding an American wife for King Boris, Premier Stamboulsky is understood to have asked David Lloyd George to suggest a suitable English mate for the lonely monarch. To this the British prime minister is said to have replied humorously that he had not yet been able to find a wife for the Prince of Wales and that Boris would have to wait, as the supply of royal princesses and other titled ladies in Europe seemed to be depleted.

After being asked if he desired to wed an American girl, as suggested by Stamboulsky, the king replied, "Well, not this year, nor next; I'm too busy rebuilding my country and must devote myself all social pleasures and some domestic happiness, but I have got admiration for the American women and I'm sure they make excellent wives."

To the question, "Would you prefer a pretty woman rather than a practical one?" the youthful ruler with a twinkle in his eye, made the diplomatic response, "Well, all American girls are pretty, are they not?"

Chinese Fire On Barges Flying American Flag

CANTON, CHINA, July 14.—(By the Associated Press)—Two Standard Oil barges flying the American flag, were fired on in the river two miles from here by troops of Vip Kue, the opponent of Sun Yat Sen, the deposed president of the South China Republic. ### ATTEMPTED TO FIRE ON PRESIDENT OF FRANCE

PARIS, July 14.—(By the Associated Press)—Three shots were fired today at Prefect of Police Naudin by Gustave Bouvet, an anarchist, well known to the police, in the belief that it was President Millerand at whom he was aiming. None of the shots took effect.

The shots were fired while the parade was passing along the Champs Elysees at the corner of the Avenue Marigny. The assailant shot from behind a woman and the fire scorched her dress. The assailant was beaten by the crowd before the police seized him.

PARIS, July 14.—(By the Associated Press)—Soldiers of France from the land, sea and air forces passed in review today before President Millerand and a crowd of hundreds of thousands of persons at Longchamps race course in the annual fourteenth of July military pageant, the chief feature of Bastille Day.

PENSACOLA, FLA., July 14.—(By the Associated Press)—A captain was arrested yesterday for the arrest of Lieutenant Guy McLaughlin, attached to the naval air station here, on a charge growing out of his alleged hold-up of a poker game several days ago.

It is charged that McLaughlin, after losing a considerable amount of money in a poker game, withdrew and later returned with a revolver in each hand and demanded that the players return his money. He is said to have been accompanied by a sergeant at the reservation.

To Prosecute Men Responsible For Herrin Massacre

ST. LOUIS, MO., July 14.—(By the Associated Press)—Investigation of the recent massacre at the strip mine of the Southern Illinois Coal Company near Herrin, Ill., in which a score of non-union mine workers were killed by striking union miners, will be pursued by the state of Illinois until the men responsible are brought to justice, Edward J. Brundage, attorney general of Illinois, said here today.

Grable Having Difficult Time Keeping Maintenance Of Way Men From Striking

Strike Developments

(By the Associated Press)

The 8,000 stationary firemen and oilers received President Timothy Healy's strike sanction for July 17, although many are already out.

E. F. Grable, head of the maintenance of way union, expressed confidence that he could prevent a general strike of his men.

President Harding and his cabinet discussed the rail strike, particularly in reference to interference with the mails.

Governor Neff, of Texas, declined to call state troops to guard M. K. & T. property and Secretary of War Weeks intimated that federal troops would be furnished if the governor stands pat.

Chairman Hooper, of the railroad labor board, continued his peace overtures with railway executives, apparently with little success, while the northwest carriers were still negotiating with local strike committees for a settlement.

CHICAGO, July 14.—(By the Associated Press)—Railway stationary firemen and oilers, numbering 8,000, today received the sanction of their president, Timothy Healy, to join the striking railway shopmen next Monday, while E. F. Grable, head of the maintenance of way brotherhood, was making strenuous efforts to hold his 400,000 men in line and prevent further defections which, if a general walk-out of his men resulted, would withdraw more than half of the nation's rail workers from service.

President Healy predicted today that his strike would tie up railroad power plants, roundhouses and terminals and declared that he would "stick with B. M. Jewell, head of the shop strikers to the finish."

Dispatches from various points say that many of the firemen and oilers have already walked out, following a message from Healy last week that the men "had a perfect right to strike" if they wanted to.

A "red flag waving" element of the maintenance of way general chairmen is responsible for renewed strike talk among those men today. Mr. Grable said, T. C. Carroll, chairman of the general chairmen's association, an organization within the union, but having no power to call a strike, said he had requests from 24 of the 197 general chairmen for a strike.

President Grable said today he hoped to carry out the peace program outlined last week following several conferences with members of the railroad labor board. Only in one event are maintenance of way men likely to go on general strike, Mr. Grable said. This eventually may come if the railroads continue to insist that members of this group do work formerly done by the strikers. Mr. Grable said he was receiving protests daily from men who are being asked to do shopmen's work.

"There is only one result if this does not stop," the union chief said. Mr. Grable held a midnight conference with President Jewell, head of the striking shopmen, last night, but Mr. Jewell said today only a general discussion of the situation took place. He affirmed his belief that Mr. Grable could hold his men well in hand, despite the spasmodic walk-out which have already taken place.

Meanwhile, the federal government kept its finger on the strike pulse and President Harding and his cabinet spent a large part of the day's cabinet session in discussion of the rail strike. Federal troops will be called on, if needed, it was said, and Secretary of War Weeks intimated that he would send a regular army detachment to guard the Missouri, Kansas and Texas property in Texas if Governor Neff fails to provide state troops.

Postmaster General Work today accepted the offer of the Aeronautical Chamber of Commerce of America to furnish 1,000 commercial airplanes for use in maintaining mail service if the mails are seriously threatened by the tie-up.

Deputy United States marshals were in charge of the railway plants at many points, while state troops were still on guard at Bloomington, Illinois; Clinton, Illinois, and Poplar Bluffs, Missouri. Marshal George Stauffer, of Cleveland, announced he was asking Attorney General Daugherty for 1400 deputies for strike duty in Northern Ohio.

The Baltimore and Ohio and the Walsh railroads secured 2 injunctions against the strikers at Indianapolis, while many other roads throughout the country already held similar writs. Disorders were apparently on the decrease.

Airplanes To Carry Mail

NEW YORK, July 14.—(By the Associated Press)—One thousand commercial aircraft, in aviation centers throughout the United States, today were ordered held in readiness after Postmaster General Work had accepted by telegram an offer of aid in maintaining mail service made by the Aeronautical Chamber of Commerce of America.

"Grand! Fine! More evidence, if any were needed, that the one big union we hear about is the United States and its emblem is the stars and stripes," was the postmaster general's reply, accepting the offer.

Strike Orders For Stationary Firemen And Oilers

CHICAGO, July 14.—(By the Associated Press)—A strike call to the eight thousand stationary firemen and oilers, employed on railroads throughout the United States, had been issued, Timothy Healy, national president of the organization, announced today.

The strike is effective next Monday, July 17, at 8 a. m. The call was made in compliance with the recent referendum which favored a walk-out, Mr. Healy said.

The text of the message to all locals of the organization follows: "In compliance with your strike vote, which is 88.6 percent favoring a walk-out, sanction is hereby granted to each and every member of our brotherhood on all railroads, steam plants, round houses and terminals throughout the United States to suspend work at 8 a. m., Monday, July 17, 1922."

"TIMOTHY HEALY, 'International President.' Stationary firemen and oilers on several roads had already joined in a sympathetic walk-out with the railway shop crafts.

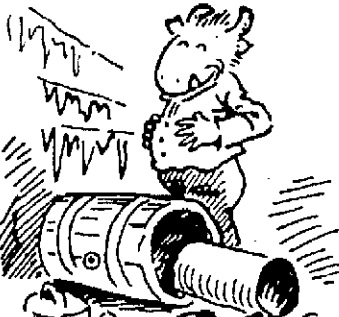

"We are into the fight and we intend to win," Mr. Healy said.

Big Four Clerks Take Strike Vote

CINCINNATI, O., July 14.—(By the Associated Press)—New elements in the railway strike situation developed late yesterday when unofficial reports at international headquarters of the railway clerks, station employees and freight handlers indicated that a strike vote was being taken by approximately 4,000 men of

Ohio River "Monster" Attacks Boy

Joe Schmuck, of 313 Front street, had a thrilling encounter with an amphibian reptile a short time ago while out canoeing with his younger brother Eddie, and his playmate, Clarence Scheffler. At the time the boys were drifting tranquilly down the Ohio river. Joe Schmuck was dreamily reclining at the helm of the craft gazing in peaceful oblivion at the fleecy clouds drifting over the Kentucky mountains. Suddenly from the depths of the water there leaped a strange and hideous creature. It alighted upon the tender sunburned neck of the startled Joe, who leaped to his feet and plunged into the water, preferring a watery grave to one from the tentacles clutches of the dreaded monster. His companions pulled him in, after he had unhooked the monster. Eyewitnesses of the affair, told Joe that the reptile was a young menobranchius, of the genus Neoturus musculus, commonly known as the water dog. Joe, however, maintains that it was a giant devil fish, of the poisonous, blood sucking, salt water species, rarely found in these parts.

Boat Has All-Steel Tow

The Wheeling Intelligencer says: The river steamer Annie Barrett, of Pittsburgh, passed this city yesterday morning about 10:30 o'clock enroute for points down the Ohio and Mississippi rivers with what local rivermen state is the largest tow ever shipped on of the upper Ohio waters. The tow was the largest all-steel tow ever assembled at Pittsburgh, for shipment and the boat was forced to remain at the Pittsburgh wharf several days before leaving on the return trip down the Ohio and Mississippi to Memphis, where most of the tow will be dropped. The tow consists of four log barges, each 150 feet long, 30 feet wide and 6 feet deep; one wharftow, 100 feet long, 26 feet wide and 5 feet deep; one dredge boat, 110 feet long, 30 feet wide and 5 feet 6 inches deep and three deck barges slated for the United States Engineers at Memphis, each 120 feet long, 30 feet wide and 7 feet deep.

The boat is due to reach here Saturday.

The Pythian Sisters met last evening at their hall, Fourth and Washington streets, with a good attendance. Mrs. Edith Bettis of Bonanza, who was a former Portsmouth resident, was present and gave a very interesting talk. The committee reported that the lawn party which was held last Monday on the lawns of Mrs. Jennie Kahn and Mrs. John Herrman of Court street was a decided success. ## Names Taken Off Ballots

The names of Harold McLaughlin, Democratic candidate for Prosecuting Attorney and Joe Smith, Democratic candidate for State Representative, have been taken off the primary ballot in Pike county, under a decision rendered by Secretary of State Harvey C. Smith, Columbus. McLaughlin, graduate of the law college at Ohio State University, is a son of S. D. McLaughlin, a prominent Democrat of Pike county.

Young McLaughlin was to oppose George D. Nye, another Democrat and son of Dr. George B. Nye.

Smith has made vain attempts to gain an office for years. George M. Sylvestre and Robert S. Wynn remain as Democratic candidates for representative.

The point at issue in both cases was that the signers of their petitions had not appeared before a notary public and acknowledged their signatures. The Waverly election board voted two to two to keep Smith and McLaughlin on the ballot, but the Secretary of State decided against them, declaring their declarations were defective.

The Joy Of Succeeding

To him that hath, it is said, shall be given. Certain it is that the man who anticipates future wants and saves toward that end is the man who achieves.

A savings account enables such a man to accumulate small amounts until the total is sufficiently large for him to acquire things really worth while—a home, education for his children, desirable investments and an independent old age.

CURED BY A NATIVE HERB

On board a vessel bound for India recently a man was bitten by a poisonous reptile; both the ship doctor and a famous surgeon failed to control the poison fast spreading through his system.

In a day the vessel reached port. An Indian medicine man was sent for, who produced a native herb which quickly allayed the poison and the man's life was saved.

Roots and herbs are nature's assistants in combating disease. That well-known medicine for ailments peculiar to women, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, is prepared from roots and herbs, possessing medicinal properties of great value in the treatment of such ailments.

This is proved by the letters of recommendation we are continually publishing in this paper for it—advertisement.

Automobile Ride Is Big Success

Yesterday was an ideal day for an automobile ride and all the children of the five Daily Vacation Bible Schools enjoyed the ride given to them at the close of the term for the summer.

Nearly sixty machines carrying about four hundred little folks with their teachers were in the procession and all enjoyed the ride.

The machines were decorated with banners and flags and the children sang songs and gave their Daily Vacation Bible School yell all along the line.

The parade started at the Higelow M. E. church and were joined by other schools of the Trinity M. E. church, Franklin Avenue church, New Boston and Sciotoville groups, and then all went as far as Wheelersburg and returned to Portsmouth. The line was so long on returning that it was broken by the traffic and part of the machines came down Ninth street and the rest some other way.

The only accident reported was a big Hudson bumped into Wesley G. Carson's Ford on making a stop. No real damage was done. Mr. Carson was leading the parade with Mr. E. E. Barnhart who was directing the parade.

There was splendid work done on the part of all the principals and teachers and no little praise is due the folks who offered their machines and their own services, and at this time we wish to thank every one who in any manner contributed to the splendid success of this trip.

Coal Supply Short At Wellston

WELLSTON, July 14.—The rail situation continues to get worse. The B. & O. has annulled through passenger trains Nos. 11 and 12 on the main line and this morning one of the locomotives on train No. 1 went dead at Hunden and was sidetracked there. No. 1 was two hours late.

The local coal supply for engines also is on the blink. Yesterday the dock equipment went blank, was repaired last night. The Hocking Valley passenger train being unable to get coal at the local dock, was

Award Contracts

CHILLICOTHE, July 14.—Two Chillicothe contracting firms were awarded yesterday that they had been awarded state jobs by the highway department. The bids were opened last week.

Ringwald & Sons will build about two miles of macadam roadway in Clark county near South Charleston. The cost is $40,411.

Anderson & Brown were awarded a contract to build a section of roadway in Pike county between Pike and Waverly. It is at a point where the road frequently is washed very badly by the Scioto when it overflows. A spillway and concrete culvert are included in the work, which amounts to about $25,000.

Williams Asserts That Real Property Pays Too Much State Tax

PORTSMOUTH, O., July 14.—Speaking before the Rotary and Exchange Clubs here today, Daniel W. Williams of Jackson, editor and candidate for the Republican nomination for Governor, declared that real estate owners in Ohio are paying at least double the amount of taxes they should pay. He said that the present tax system is out of date and that it has been so patched as to be a hopeless jumble, and that an entirely new code, drafted by experts is necessary. Mr. Williams also declared that the farmers should have their share of the local tax money for highway improvement and condemned the spending of so much money on main roads.

Mr. Williams will speak before the League of Women Voters at Columbus Friday and will be in Mansfield on Saturday.

Don't Spoil Your Hair By Washing It

When you wash your hair, be careful what you use. Most soaps and prepared shampoos contain too much alkali, which is very injurious, as it dries the scalp and makes the hair brittle.

The best thing to use is Mulsified coconut oil shampoo, for this is pure and entirely greaseless. It's very cheap and beats anything else all to pieces. You can get Mulsified in any drug store, and a few ounces will last the whole family for months.

Simply moisten the hair with water and rub it in, about a teaspoonful of Mulsified is all that is required. It makes an abundance of rich creamy lather, cleanses thoroughly, and rinses out easily. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and is soft, fresh looking, bright, fluffy, and easy to handle. Besides it loosens and takes out every particle of dust, dirt and dandruff. Be sure your druggist gives you Mulsified.—advertisement.

Shopmen Resign

RUSSELL, KY., July 14.—Thursday's meeting of the Russell shopmen was addressed by Geo. Kidd, civil war veteran of Stonington, Ky., who has been active in organized labor since 1874. It was announced yesterday that R. C. McDowell and C. E. Bratton, mechanics of the Russell shop, had resigned as members of the board of management of the Russell Y. M. C. ## PLAN DRIVE ON IRREGULARS

LONDON, July 14.—(By the Associated Press)—Formation of an army council in Dublin and the reorganization of the general staff of national army are believed to presage important movements against the Republicans in southwestern Ireland at an early date. The military censorship, however, has been clamped down tightly in the Irish capital, and nothing authoritatively has reached London regarding plans for the campaign.

It appears that a good deal of work in clearing the irregulars from the middle and western counties may be necessary before the main operations can begin.

Strike Settlement Looms

ST. PAUL, MINN., July 14.—Prospects for an early settlement of the national strike of railway shopmen on the basis of informal negotiations conducted in conferences here between union leaders and representatives of various railways centering in the Twin Cities and the northwest, were very good today, in the opinion of union men and railroad executives.

Confidence that the end of the strike, which has threatened to disrupt rail communication is near, was expressed by R. A. Henning, chairman of the federated shop crafts of the northwest district. Mr. Henning said that "it is entirely possible that the strike will be settled on a national basis in Chicago within the next 48 hours. If these meetings do not lead to a national settlement of the walk-out, it is indicated that the informal conference with the 17 roads centering in this section would be resumed in an effort to effect a settlement in the northwest."

Fixes Value of German Property

BRISEL, July 14.—(By the Associated Press)—Premier Thurnes has placed at $800,000,000 marks the liquidation value of the expropriated German property in Belgium. The government is disposing of this property to raise a fund for redemption of the 6,000,000,000 marks which Germany circulated in Belgium during the war.

Deputy Sheriff Wounds Picket

CHICAGO, July 14.—(By the Associated Press)—A deputy sheriff today shot and seriously wounded one of a crowd of men attempting to prevent workers from entering the Burnside shops of the Illinois Central. Police reserves answered a riot call, but the leaders left by automobile before they arrived. It is reported that the homes of the workmen are being picketed rather than the shops.

TO BE SOLD UNDER HAMMER

TOLEDO, O., July 14.—(By the Associated Press)—Sale at public auction will be held August 15 of the property of the Ohio Electric Co., which includes the Toledo-Lima interurban lines, electric light and power plant, the steam heating plants in Lima, the Lima street railway system and ten shares of the Ohio Interurban Properties Company, J. B. Jones, receiver for the company, announced here today.

The sale is subject to payment of mortgages of more than $1,000,000. Bids of not less than $2,000,000 will be accepted at the Toledo station of the company, the announcement stated.

Striking Miners To Stage Demonstration

POMEROY, O., July 14.—(By the Associated Press)—Ten automobile loads of striking union miners left here this morning in company with Seth Thomas, secretary-treasurer of the subdistrict United Mine Workers, to demonstrate with workers in the small mines around here.

Bouvet said to the police: "It was at the carriage of the president of the republic I intended firing. However, I did not wish to kill any one. I wished only to make a demonstration that would attract attention to the condition of the proletariat."

The Chesapeake and Ohio Railway Company:

A committee from the clerks' organization asked the General Manager for a conference for the purpose of requesting him not to put into effect United States Railroad Labor Board Decision 1074 (Docket 1800), decided June 15th, 1922, which was effective on July 1st, 1922. The General Manager met them in conference and advised them that he had no alternative but to put the decision into effect, in view of the fact that decisions of the Labor Board carrying decrees had been applied to other employees, some of whom were on strike because of that action. The General Manager, however, offered to consider any individual adjustments based upon age in service, unusual fitness, qualifications, usefulness, etc., of which there might be instances where clerks are under-paid. The reply of the General Chairman of the clerks' organization was in part "I specifically stated to you yesterday that nothing less than a blanket non-decrease arrangement was feasible or satisfactory." His reply further states that "We have arranged at once to carry out our specific instructions, the results of which will soon be forthcoming." I have no idea as to what these "specific instructions" are and have not received any information on this subject.

On April 27th, 1922, an agreement was entered into between this Company and the organization representing its clerks, in which the rules governing their employment and method of determining rates of pay were agreed upon. As a part of this agreement there were several rules, among which were the sick leave and vacation rules, jointly submitted to the United States Railroad Labor Board for decision and are still pending before that Board—consequently cannot be involved in this controversy. Among the rules agreed to was Rule No. 54, reading as follows:

"Rates of pay for employees named herein will be those mutually agreed upon by the C. & O. Executive Board of the Organization, party to this agreement and representatives of the Company, OR AS AUTHORIZED BY THE UNITED STATES LABOR BOARD."

It will be observed that this is an absolutely positive agreement to accept the rates of pay authorized by the United States Railroad Labor Board.

Rule 80, another agreed upon rule, reads as follows:

"This agreement shall be effective as of February 16th, 1922, and shall continue in effect until it is changed as provided herein or under the provisions of the Transportation Act, 1920.

"Should either of the parties to this agreement desire to revise or modify these rules, 30 days' written advance notice, containing the proposed changes, shall be given and conferences shall be held immediately on the expiration of said notice unless another date is mutually agreed upon."

No notice of cancellation of this agreement has been received from the clerks as provided for by this rule.

We do not feel that the clerks as a body will sanction the violation of a formally signed agreement, made for them by their authorized representatives. A strike, if that is what is meant by "specific instructions," would be against the decisions of the United States Railroad Labor Board insofar as wages are concerned, would be called while the disputed rules are pending before the Labor Board, as above shown, AND IS ALSO IN VIOLATION OF YOUR OWN SIGNED AGREEMENT. We call upon the members of this organization to carry out their agreement with us.

W. J. HARAHAN,
President.

SCENE FROM "THE PRODIGAL JUDGE"

The three most interesting characters in "The Prodigal Judge" are Judge Slocum, Price-Tuberville, played by Maclyn Arbuckle; Solomon Mahaffy, by Ernest Torrence, and Hannibal, by Charles Eaton. Jean Paige has the role of Betty Malroy, who helps the judge to reclaim himself.

The Most Lovable Character of Fiction Comes To Live In Motion Pictures At The Eastland Theatre Next Week In A Film That Excels All Others—Vaughan Kester's World Famous Novel "The Prodigal Judge."

"The Prodigal Judge," Vitaphone's spectacular special production of the old south in 1835, which will be shown at Eastland Theatre on Monday was made by an all-star cast under direction of Edward José.

Many of the scenes were taken in Virginia and parts of the south where the story is laid. Every effort has been made to reproduce the foliage and surroundings described by Vaughan Kester in his world-famous novel of the same name upon which this picture is based.

It has been built upon a solid foundation—a real story. The book took the country by storm. It abounds in quaint, picturesque and lovable characters who appeal both to the heart and the sense of humor. Unlike many literary successes, "The Prodigal Judge" easily is adapted to visualization on the screen. The people in it who hate and do things. They are men and women who weep and laugh, who hate and do things. They are many big scenes and opportunities galore for powerful acting. A pretty love story is connected with the picture, and what is more rare, a wonderful friendship between two men, the Judge and Solomon Mahaffy, which provides not only some of the humor, but tender scenes that pull at the heart-strings.

The role of the Judge is portrayed by Maclyn Arbuckle, and that of Ma-

Morgan. The carpenter work, plaster and electric wiring to the Schweikart Lumber Co. W. A. Carvill was awarded the plumbing and W. B. Cooper the painting. Contracts for stone work, steel and roofing went to Jones & Lallan of Sciotoville.

LIGHTNING PLAYS AROUND CLUBHOUSE

STRIKERS PAID OFF AT CHILlicothe

The Chillicothe News Advertiser says: "Thursday was the quietest day of all since the walkout of local B. & O. shoppers a week ago Saturday. The biggest event of the day was 'paying off' at the freight house. While hundreds of men were gathered on the scene, everything went off in great shape and in the most orderly and commendable fashion. The men seemed happy and a general feeling of optimism over the situation prevailed."

Word from B. & O. official sources was to the effect that the situation here was unchanged. Things were equally as quiet at union headquarters.

Miss Dolly Wise

She is here to answer any and all questions concerning love, matrimony, troubles, woes, etiquette, etc. Inquiries should be addressed to Miss Dolly Wise, care The Daily Times, Portsmouth, Ohio.

Dear Dolly—Would you mind giving me this information? How old does a girl have to be to work in the shoe factory during school vacation, and do they have to have a school certificate to work there? I am tending to a lady's children now and as I would like to work in the factory next summer I will be much pleased with an answer.

CASTLE HILL.
Through the summer you must be fourteen, the school grade not counting. In the winter a person of school age must be sixteen and through the seventh grade or past 18 years of age. In all cases he must have a school certificate from Supt. Frank Appel.

Dear Dolly—While Mr. Gergens is discussing the garbage subject, why not call the attention of his men to replacing the lid, instead of throwing it away, in the alley to be run over by autos or other vehicles. I have lost several cans and lids in this way in the last few years and can't count money.

INJURED INNOCENCE.
If you have any complaints of this kind why not go directly to Mr. Gergens.

I have the name and address of a lady who would like to keep house for a widower or bachelor.

Times Reader—I have no recipe for lemon cakes but perhaps a reader might furnish you with one.
Vinegar Pie—1 1/2 cups of good vinegar, 2 cups sugar, 1 cup water, 1 tablespoon butter, lemon extract to taste.

Adventures Of The Twins

BY OLIVE ROBERTS BARTON

NANCY and Nick overheard Mrs. Robin talking to Mrs. Frog down by the pond.
Mrs. Robin was saying:
"Oh, don't be disappointed about your children, Mrs. Frog. Mine were born without a single feather—bald as door-knobs, my dear! But I went to Dr. Snuffles and he gave me some drops and in three weeks my children were beautiful."
"Oh," said Mrs. Frog eagerly, "do you think it would do my pollywogs any good, Mrs. Robin? Really, I'm almost ashamed of them. They haven't a leg to stand on and, mind you, they've actually got tails like lizards."
"Well," said Mrs. Robin, "I have half a bottle left and you're welcome to it, I'm sure."
The twins slipped away and told the fairy doctor all about it.
"H'm," said that gentleman thoughtfully. "It's bad business for people to take other folks' medicine! I'll have to give her a little lesson."
Next day Dr. Snuffles presented himself at Mrs. Frog's front door and asked about the pollywog children.
"They're fine, thank you," said Mrs. Frog, "only their legs don't grow very fast."
"That so?" said Dr. Snuffles. "Well, well! I'll have to give them some leg medicine. I gave Mrs. Robin's children some feather medicine, and you ought to see 'em now!"
"Feather medicine!" shrieked Mrs. Frog. "Was that feather medicine she gave me? Goodness! They'll have feathers all over them! Oh, doctor, what shall I do?"
Then Dr. Snuffles kindly, but firmly, gave her a piece of his mind. He told her what not to do thereafter. And that was not to borrow medicine from a neighbor.
Also he said to let her pollywogs alone and they'd grow all the legs they needed and lose their tails as well.
Which they did.

BILLY LEARNS OF WHEELER'S PLOT AGAINST HIM

BY ZOE BECKLEY

BILLY sprang after "Don" and made the corridor just as Don jumped into a waiting taxi. Billy's shout went unheeded and the car sped off. Molly was at Billy's elbow, her face strained and white. "We've got to warn Ben!" The words came to the lips of both at the same time.

"Let's telephone!" They lost precious minutes trying to get Wheeler. "Funny, Miss Wayne," came at last from the switchboard girl. "I had him in his office just a minute ago, but he doesn't answer now. He's somewhere about the plant. I'll try to find him."

They hung up without waiting to explain. "We can find him," whispered Billy. "Come on, quick!"

Molly followed him into a taxi, her heart pounding with excitement, her mind in a panicky whirl. Her flashes of fear were alternately for Don Manning and Ben Wheeler.

It did not strike her that Billy Barton might get embroiled, too. She felt him only as her mainstay in a terrible emergency—the tragic possibility of an encounter between Don Manning and Ben Wheeler.

If Don should hurt Ben—if Ben, relentless and angry, were to harm Don—if Don were to be sent to prison—these thoughts tattered through Molly's mind and shook her heart.

"A bit more speed, brother—I'll pay your fine," Billy spoke to the chauffeur in answer to Molly's dumb plea. The machine spurred faster. A wave of grateful feeling for Billy swept over the girl.

"Oh, Bill, you're splendid-hearted," she whispered, "to try to save a man who's doing his best to ruin you." "Ben's best isn't good enough," Billy grinned mechanically, his mind on the chase.

Misadvisedly Molly wondered if she ought to tell Billy about Ben's latest stay against him. Something told her she ought.

"Billy—Ben is more ruthless than you think!"

"He can't do me any real harm. So long as my work pleases the Carson Construction Company—and only last week I got their biggest order—I don't worry."

He stopped at Molly's involuntary gasp, the swift muffle of her hand upon her lips.

"Molly, if you've some real news," he said gravely, "let's have it. I must know."

"He's bought it, Billy!" she whispered huskily, "bought control of the Carson Company."

Barton sat up stiffly, his brows knitting in concentration, his lips tightened with an eagerness of hate Molly had never seen in his face before.

"Just for my benefit?" His jaw squared and he ground his clenched fist into his palm. "And I like a damned fool—hey! Driver!" he shouted. "Stop!"

CHAUTAUQUA OPENS NEXT TUESDAY

The Portsmouth Chautauqua which opens on Tuesday, July 18, is bringing a wealth of education and entertainment to the community that is not only of an unusually worthwhile character but which at the same time is being furnished at a remarkably low price.

During the "Seven Joyous Days" a total of forty-seven persons will appear before chautauqua fans and in this number will be found eminent lecturers, five musical companies, a play company and two entertainment groups. They will present a total of thirteen programs which may be attended by all adults for the price of $2.50 if season tickets are purchased.

This puts the cost per program at a little more than nineteen cents—an extremely small sum when the worth of the different numbers is considered. Representatives of the churches who are responsible for the sale of tickets are urging the purchase of season tickets not only for the purpose of making chautauqua a financial success but because this method is by far the most economical from the standpoint of those who expect to attend all or even a part of the seasons. Single admissions for all programs total about three times as much as the price of a season ticket. In attending only four or five numbers and paying single admissions one invests as much as the price of a ticket that would have enabled him to attend all of the chautauqua sessions.

These Are Headliners

On the list are Stefansson, Ada Ward, Dr. Allen D. Albert, Dr. J. Franklin Babbs, and Dr. Winifred Stoner. Outstanding on the list is the name of Stefansson. In the noted Arctic explorer is found a modern Columbus, a hero who has opened to the world a vast and hitherto unknown tract of land which he predicts will in the near future become a valuable source of food supply for the human race. With two companions and provided with rations for six months, Stefansson ventured into a forbidden land, supposedly uninhabitable. He remained for two years trying to prove his contention that life can be supported beyond the Arctic circle.

His photographic evidence of the productivity of this region, his convincing explanation of his theories with regard to its usefulness and the account of his trials and hardships form a lecture which audiences on all Coast-Alber circuits are proclaiming to be of the utmost value.

Talk On "You Americans"

Ada Ward, the keen minded little English woman, reveals a kindly, humorous personality. It is her purpose to promote a better understanding between Americans and the English-speaking countries across the Atlantic. In her lecture entitled, "You Americans," she accomplishes her purpose admirably.

Audiences are often distrustful of English lecturers, fearing a rather contemptuous attitude on their part toward things American. Such fears may be cast aside with Ada Ward on the platform. She has a most sympathetic interpretation of Americans and her picture of ourselves as others see us is exceedingly popular. It is illustrated with some clever black-board sketches.

Rotarians' Former Head

As former president of the International Rotary Clubs, Dr. Allen D. Albert commands at once the attention and admiration of all Rotarians. As an expert sociologist and economist he commands the attention of every thinking citizen. His lecture on "New Social Forces" deals with modern problems and the factors that affect the daily life of each and all of us. What he says is of added weight because of his wide experience as a journalist and as specialist in the causes of city growth in which capacity he has acted as counselor for over five hundred chambers of commerce throughout the United States, Canada and Mexico.

Dr. J. Franklin Babbs is widely known as the "sleep-proof" lecturer. Ever since his return from over seas service with our boys in France, his time has been dominated by chautauqua and lecture audiences. His lecture on "The 100 Percent Man" has in it an appeal for a better and nobler life and comes from a man who has devoted his own energies and talents altruistically in the making of churches that have been conspicuous as failures, famous as successes.

Mother Of Smartest Girl

The mother of the so-called smartest girl in the world will lecture on education. Dr. Stoner will tell of the teaching process by which she developed the wonderful mind of Winifred Stueve Stoner, Jr., the youngest member of "Who's Who," the master of a dozen or more languages, the youngest member of the Authors' League, and famous for many achievements.

MY PICTURE ON EVERY PACKAGE P. D. Q.

P. D. Q., a chemical (not an insecticide) that will actually rid a house of bed bugs, roaches, fleas and ants, with its proper use impossible for them to exist as it kills their eggs as well and thereby stops future generations.

A 15c package makes a quart. From a quart you can make up to 100 gallons in the hard-to-get-at places. Special Hospital use $2.50 makes 5 gallons. Your druggist has it or get it for you. P. D. Q. can also be purchased in sealed bottles, double strength, liquid form.

ments. She has some unique ideas about education which parents and teachers generally are apt to question, but whether one agrees with her or not, she at least awakens in the minds of those responsible for the upbringing of the future generation a keener appreciation of their responsibility.

Here Is Schedule

In the Sunday School league tomorrow the First Evangelical and First Christian teams will meet in the first game on the Industrial league diamond. Manly and Trinity play the second game there.

At Millbrook Riggle and Second Presbyterian play the first game. This game will probably start late on account of there being only one game. The second game between First Baptist and First Presbyterian will be played at the Baptist picnic to be held at Murphy's Grove on the West Side.

To Play In Rarden

The Portsmouth Murels play in Rarden Sunday afternoon. The team will leave Second and Chilliworth streets at 10:30 o'clock Sunday morning in automobiles for Rarden. Peebles and then Vancouver will be met the following Sundays.

Mayor Visits City

Mayor H. H. Mittendorf of South Webster transacted business in Portsmouth Thursday.

Vancouver Teacher Improving

Miss Anna Redden, school teacher of Vancouver, and a patient in Hempstead hospital, is recovering from a surgical operation she underwent July 11.

Crash On Hill

Two machines driven by Willard Johnson and Cecil Mettles, collided on Sumner Hill near Stockdale, seriously damaging both machines. One machine was descending the hill and the other ascending when the collision occurred. One machine held eight people, but fortunately did not turn over and no one was injured. It was at first reported that the occupants were seriously injured.

Auto Insurance. W. W. Bauer.

Drive a Hippomobile for safety.

Burglar Alarm Rings

The burglar alarm at the Security Bank started booming about 11:15 last night. Officer Compelman, who was making his rounds went to the bank and found all of the windows and doors closed. He later entered the bank but was unable to find anyone. John Branny, an employee was called and shut off the alarm.

SCARAMOUCHE

by Rafael Sabatini

BEGIN HERE TODAY

To escape hanging on the charge of sedition.

ANDRE-LOUIS MOREAU flees from his native town of Gavrilac and conceals his identity by joining a band of strolling players in which he makes a great success in the part of SCARAMOUCHE.

His flight has caused him to delay revenge on the great and powerful MARQUIS DE LA TOUR D'AZYR, who tricked Andre-Louis' dearest friend, PHILIPPE DE VILMORIN, into a duel and then killed him because he feared the idealist's "dangerous gift of eloquence."

Over the dead body of his friend, Andre-Louis swore to carry on the work of reforming the lot of the down-trodden peasants.

Scaramouche, as he is now called, falls in love with CLIMENE, daughter of MONSIEUR BINET, the owner of the troupe. They become engaged and Andre-Louis has forgotten ALINE DE KERADOU, the friend of his childhood, who horrified him by listening to the suit of the Marquis. While walking with Climene, he unexpectedly meets Aline.

GO ON WITH THE STORY (Continued From Our Last Issue)

In the background, on a settee at the salon's far end, sat Aline staring in bewilderment and some fear at a face which, if unrecognizable through the mask of blood and dust that smeared it, was yet familiar. And then the man spoke, and instantly she knew the voice for that of the Marquis de La Tour d'Azyr.

"In danger?" Almost he seemed silently to laugh at the unnecessary question. "If I were to show myself openly in the streets just now, I might with luck contrive to live for five minutes!"

He peeled off the shaggy great-coat and casting it from him stepped forth in the black satin that had been the general livery of the hundred knights who had rallied in the Tuileries that morning to the defense of their king.

His coat was rent across the back, his neckcloth and the ruffles at his wrists were torn and bloodstained; with his smeared face and disordered headpiece he was terrible to behold.

"My dear Therese, unless you carry charitableness to the length of giving me to drink, you will see me perish of thirst under your eyes before ever the emmelle has a chance to finish me."

She started. "I should have thought of it," she cried in self-reproach, and she turned quickly. "Aline," she begged, "tell Jacques to bring . . ."

"Aline!" he echoed, interrupting, and swinging round in his turn. Then, as Aline rose into view, detaching from her background, and he at last perceived her, he heaved himself abruptly to his weary legs again, and stood there stiffly, bowing to her across the space of gleaming floor. "Mademoiselle, I had not suspected your presence," he said, and he seemed extraordinarily ill-at-ease, a man startled, as if caught in an illicit act.

"I perceived it, monsieur," she answered, as she advanced to do madame's commission. She paused before him. "From my heart, monsieur, I grieve that we should meet again in circumstances so very painful."

Not since the day of his duel with Andre-Louis—the day which had seen the death and burial of his last hope of winning her—had they stood face to face.

"But sit, monsieur, I beg. You are fatigued."

"You are gracious to observe it. With your permission, then," And he resumed his seat. She continued on her way to the door and passed out upon her errand.

M. de La Tour d'Azyr at last pleaded weariness, and withdrew that he might endeavor to take some rest. When he had gone, madame persuaded Aline to go and lie down.

Left alone, madame lay down on a couch in the salon itself, to be ready for any emergency.

The thump on the overmantel chimed the hour of ten, and then startling in the suddenness with which it broke the immediate silence, another sound vibrated through the house, and brought madame to her feet, in a breathless mingling of hope and dread. Someone was knocking sharply on the door below. Followed moments of agonized suspense, culminating in the abrupt invasion of the room by the footman Jacques. He looked round, not seeing his mistress at first.

"Madame! Madame!" he panted, out of breath. "There is a man below. He is demanding to see you at once."

She was perfectly composed. "Conduct him to me, and then beg Mlle. de Keradieu to join me if she is awake."

The door opened again, and Jacques reappeared; after him, stepping briskly past him, came a slight man in a wide-brimmed hat, adorned by a tricolor cockade. About the waist of an olive-green riding-coat he wore a broad tricolor sash; a sword hung at his side.

odd manner, she took the folded sheet. She broke the seal with shaking hands, and with shaking hands approached the written page to the light.

"And so you know, my child?" Her voice was stifled to a whisper. "I know, madame my mother."

She took one or two faltering steps toward him, hesitating. Then she opened her arms. Sobs suffocated her voice.

"Won't you come to me, Andre-Louis?"

A moment yet he stood hesitating, started by that appeal, angered almost by his heart's response to it, reason and sentiment at grips in his soul. This was not real, his reason expostulated; this poignant emotion that she displayed and that he experienced was fantastic. Yet he went. Her arms enfolding him; her wet cheek was pressed hard against his own; her frame, which the years had not yet succeeded in robbing of its grace, was shaken by the passionate storm within her.

"AND SO YOU KNOW, MY CHILD?" HER VOICE WAS STIFLED TO A WHISPER.

"Andre-Louis," she exclaimed. "CHAPTER XII"

THAT gift of laughter of his seemed utterly extinguished. "Rougeane could not return," he informed her shortly. "At M. de Keradieu's request I come instead."

"You! You are sent to rescue us!" The note of amazement in her voice was stranger than that of her relief.

"That, and to make your acquaintance, madame."

"To make my acquaintance? But what do you mean, Andre-Louis?" This letter from M. de Keradieu will tell you."

Intrigued by his odd words and

Intrigued by his odd words and

"You heard, Aline?" madame exclaimed.

"I could not help it, madame."

"Aline!" It was the Countess who spoke. She knew the danger of half-discoveries. "I can trust you, child, I know, and Andre-Louis, I am sure, will offer no objection." She had taken up the letter to show it to Aline. Yet first her eyes questioned him.

"Oh, none, madame," he assured her. "It is entirely a matter for yourself."

Aline looked from one to the other with troubled eyes, hesitating to take the letter that was now proffered. When she had read it through, she very thoughtfully replaced it on the table. Then impulsively she ran to madame and put her arms about her.

"Aline!" It was a cry of wonder, almost of joy. "You do not utterly abhor me!"

"My dear," said Aline, and kissed the tear-stained face that seemed to have grown years older in these last few hours.

In the background Andre-Louis, steeling himself against emotionalism, spoke with the voice of Scaramouche.

"It would be well, mesdames, to postpone all transports until they can be indulged at greater leisure and in more security. It is growing late. If we are to get out of this shambles we should be wise to take the road without delay."

It was a tonic as effective as it was necessary. It startled them into remembrance of their circumstances, and under the spur of it they went at once to make their preparations.

They left him for perhaps a quarter of an hour, to pace that long room alone, saved only from impatience by the turmoil of his mind, when at length they returned, they were accompanied by a tall man in a full-skirted shaggy greatcoat and a broad hat, the brim of which was turned down all around. He remained respectfully by the door in the shadows.

Between them the two women had concerted it (thus, or rather the Countess had so concerted it when Aline had warned her that Andre-Louis' bitter hostility toward the Marquis made it unthinkable that he should move a finger consciously to save him.

They had made the mistake of not fully forewarning and persuading M. de La Tour d'Azyr.

They had reckoned without the queer sense of honor that moved such men as M. le Marquis, nurtured upon a code of shams.

Andre-Louis, turning to scan that muffled figure, advanced from the dark depths of the salon. As the light beat on his white, lean face the pseudo-footman started. The next moment he too stepped forward into the light, and swept his broad-brimmed hat from his brow. As he did so Andre-Louis observed that his hand was fine and white and that a jewel flashed from one of the fingers. Then he caught his breath, and stiffened in every line as he recognized the face revealed to him.

"Monsieur," that stern, proud man was saying, "I cannot take advantage of your ignorance. If these ladies can persuade you to save me, at least it is due to you that you shall know whom you are saving."

When toxic poisons penetrate the intestinal walls—EXPECT THE WORST!

Next follows poisoning of the blood. This means the poisoning of every organ in the body. Vitality and energy become lower each day; the brain becomes sluggish. Old age and illness gallop in!

You can avoid all that by permanently relieving constipation—the cause of 90% of all human ills—through the regular use of Kellogg's Bran, cooked and krumbled! Keep the eliminative track open in healthy normal condition and you will live in health years longer.

Kellogg's Bran is simply nature's food. It is not a "remedy," but eaten regularly each day—at least two tablespoons—in chronic cases, with each meal—it will sweep the bowels, cleansing and purifying.

You cannot afford to feel sluggish; to have your brain energy impaired; to have an offensive breath! Constipation can be blamed for them all! It hastens old age just as it is responsible for illness!

The aged can be permanently relieved of constipation worries through the use of Bran. Every member of your family should eat it every day. Kellogg's Bran is most valuable in the diet of children. It will make them grow strong and robust. It clears a muddy or pimply complexion and removes an obnoxious breath. Bran's health work is wonderful.

Kellogg's Bran is delicious as a cereal or sprinkled over other hot or cold cereal. It makes the most delectable light cakes, raisin bread, gummy, etc. Recipes on every package. Buy Kellogg's Bran at all grocers.

An interesting feature of the Pike County Fair will be the exhibit of beef cattle by the State Department of Agriculture. This exhibit contains several heads of Angus, Short-horn and Hereford cattle which have been grown and fattened by a scientific method of feeding worked out by experts in the State Department of Agriculture. It will pay any farmer to examine these cattle and to study the system of feeding used by the department.

Girls Fight With The Police; Scratch, Bite 'Em

DETROIT, MICH., July 14.—(By the Associated Press)—Police remained on duty at the House of the Good Shepherd, a girls' detention home, today, to prevent a recurrence of the break for liberty which resulted in 14 of the inmates gaining temporary freedom yesterday.

The institution usually is unguarded, and when the girl inmates, ranging in age from 10 to 19 years, made their break for liberty, only a 14 foot wall stood in their way. Some of them scaled the wall and fled through streets and alleys before police arrived and forced them into the buildings. A fight with the officers ensued in which some of the blue coats sustained scratches, lacerated shins and bites.

NEW YORK, July 14.—(By the Associated Press)—Revival of American interest in the aerial glider, which dropped from prominence when the Wright brother produced their first motor driven plane, was predicted by the Aeronautical Chamber of Commerce of America today, in announcing that three young Americans would sail for France tomorrow with their newly designed glider to take part in the first international gliding contests to be held in August at Clermont-Ferrand. The trio—Edmund T. Allen, of Chicago, Harry C. Karcher, of Mansfield, O., and Otto C. Koppen, of Mamaronock, N. Y., built their glider at the Massachusetts institute of technology, where they are students.

Mexican Cabinet

Member Remains

MEXICO CITY, July 14.—(By the Associated Press)—Official sources have declined to comment on the unexpected delay in the departure from New York of Secretary of Finance De La Huerta, following his recent conferences there with the international bankers and oil men.

Several members of the secretary's staff crossed the border at Laredo yesterday on their homeward journey, indicating that Senor De La Huerta's delay is concerned with affairs other than banking or oil. The suggestion is advanced that these may be of a political nature, involving a visit by the secretary to Washington.

MEXICO CITY, July 14.—(By the Associated Press)—President Obregon, who is at Cuernavaca, ostensibly for a week's rest, is understood to be conducting a personal investigation of the kidnapping of A. Miss Swanson Cleared
Of Vamping Charges

LOS ANGELES, CAL., July 14.—(By the Associated Press)—Gloria Swanson, motion picture actress, was expected to take the stand in the superior court here today and testify that she considered Matthew P. Burns, her stepfather, of sound mind when he bequeathed his $100,000 estate to her mother, Mrs. Adaline Burns.

The court ruled the film actress and her mother engaged in neither of the conspiracies alleged by Burns' sister, Mrs. Margaret Graham, and other of the shoe merchant's relatives, thus disposing of what had been unofficially known as "vamping" accusations against Miss Swanson.

With these charges out of the way, there remained only to settle the mental state of Burns when he made the will.

SHOOTS WIFE, CHILDREN

AND THEN KILLS SELF

CLEVELAND, July 14.—Eric Mayer, 5 years old, is in a local hospital today, the sole survivor of the family of Matthew Mayer, 35, of Euclid village. Eric became an orphan early yesterday morning when his father shot and killed his mother, his eight-months-old sister, Malena, and then after shooting Eric in the chest, turned the weapon on himself. Hospital physicians this morning said Eric would recover.

Police say the shooting followed a family quarrel. The tragedy was not discovered until late yesterday afternoon when Eric recovered consciousness, twelve or fourteen hours after the shooting and struggled from beneath his father, who had fallen dead across his wounded son's body. ## Senate Turns To

The Dye Embargo

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 14.—(By the Associated Press)—The senate turned to the dye embargo provision of the tariff bill today, putting aside the cotton schedule, with prospects of a vigorous fight before the embargo section is finally settled.

Consideration of the cotton schedule yesterday resulted in the first real split in Republican senate ranks over the administration tariff measure when ten committee amendments proposing increased rates on various kinds of yarns and on silver and rayon were rejected one after another as fast as they were reached.

Any person eligible to vote who has not registered since the general registration of 1920 must register to be allowed to vote at the primary; and any elector who has moved from the precinct where he last voted must obtain a transfer on one of the registration days before the primary.

Any person who will become 21 years of age before the general election in November is eligible to vote in the primary and may register on these days.

Other registration days as announced by the board are July 15, 20 and 21 and August 3, 4 and 5. The hope was expressed that a large registration would be made today and tomorrow.

This to the ladies: It is not necessary to give your exact age. All that is asked is this question, "Are you over 21?"

U. S. TAKES CHARGE!

Scenes in Rail Strike In Slater, Mo.

SLATER, Mo., is the first city in the country where federal marshals took command after local authorities failed to keep order in connection with the strike of railroad shopmen. The pictures above show strike scenes in and around Slater. O. A. "Buck" Lindsay, United States marshal in charge of the government force, is shown at the upper left. Upper right shows pickets of the striking shopmen gathered at the depot to inspect trains coming into behind the bars. Hawley is the first striker to be arrested at Slater. He defied "Buck" Lindsay and crossed the "dead line" that has been established between the C. & A. shops and the city.

Sensational Charges

Made In Senate

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 14.—(By the Associated Press)—Charges of a somewhat sensational character against the Chemical Foundation, Inc., the E. J. Du Pont de Nemours Company, and the Textile Alliance were made today in the senate by Senator Moses, Republican, New Hampshire, in the course of a prepared address in opposition to the dye embargo provision of the administration tariff bill. Senator Moses said these organizations were three of the actors in the "gigantic fraud" he was opposing, and added:

"These three are significantly interlocked in their related personnel, and in their activities, and it is they whose subsidiaries, officers, stockholders, lobbyists, paid propagandists and faked and kept organizations have been the most aggressive, avaricious and insolent of all the profiteering crew who pertinaciously push this legislation."

Senator Moses declared that whatever the outcome of the government proceedings against the Chemical Foundation, he always would believe it was "conceived in conspiracy and fostered by falsehood." He charged that the "conspiracy" was formed by Francis P. Garvin, its president, "his associates in the office of alien property custodian and certain of the dye manufacturers of the country."

Calling attention that the foundation was organized in the winter of 1910, Senator Moses said that on February 16, of that year, Acting Secretary Polk signed an executive order, "which had been carefully prepared for his signature" by the foundation, authorizing licensing of seized enemy patents and trademarks by the organization.

Harding Too Busy To Discuss Legislation

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 14.—(By the Associated Press)—Enthusiasm of President Harding with the troubled industrial state of the nation, particularly the rail and coal strikes, caused a postponement today of the executive's conference with Senator Lodge, of Massachusetts, senate Republican leader, on the senate legislative situation.

The Massachusetts senator spent a half hour with the president, but on leaving the White House said he had found Mr. Harding so occupied with the industrial situation that it was agreed that discussion of legislative matters might better wait until a later time.

Announcement by clerks on strike that their ranks here had been added to by men who remained on the job Wednesday and Thursday and announcement from the railway offices that clerks had returned to work in full force at different points were the only developments in the strike situation here today.

At the N. & W. division offices at East Portsmouth this afternoon it was stated that the entire clerical force at the Ironton yard office, N. & W. freight house and N. & W. passenger depot and the entire clerical force at Welch, W. Va., had returned to work. The clerks at Welch returned to work at seven o'clock this morning and the Ironton clerks at one o'clock this afternoon.

No clerks are out between here and Columbus at Circleville and their places have already been filled according to the announcement at the local offices at East Portsmouth.

The N. & W. also gave out the announcement that all striking employees will be paid off tomorrow afternoon at the N. & W. freight house starting at two o'clock.

A sufficient paying off force will be on hand to distribute the checks within a couple of hours. All striking employees are to turn in all N. & W. property and passes when they are paid off. This notice is for all shop crafts and yard clerks. Others not on strike will receive their checks at the usual places. The strikers will be paid in full at this time.

It was also stated that starting tonight two tricks will be worked on the Hump instead of one trick. Movement of freight has increased to such an extent that two tricks have to be worked according to today's announcement.

After the daily meeting of the striking clerks this morning it was stated that eight additional clerks had joined their ranks this morning. It was also stated that a committee had been sent to see the clerks at the freight house and that the majority of them are expected to join the strikers tonight or tomorrow. The N. & W. reported a full force of clerks at work at the freight house with freight house officials working as truckmen.

The shopmen this afternoon reported nothing new from their side except that all men were remaining out 100 per cent.

At the C. & O. freight station this afternoon it was stated that a strike vote had been taken there this morning and that employees had expressed themselves in favor of going out. The vote taken was sent to headquarters and some definite word on striking is expected sometime tomorrow.

ORDERS ARMY OFFICERS TO INVESTIGATE

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 14.—(By the Associated Press)—Secretary of War Weeks announced on leaving the White House today that he had ordered the inspector general of the eighth corps area to proceed from San Antonio, Texas, to Denison, Texas, and report on conditions which have interrupted operation of the Missouri, Kansas & Texas Railroad. Further appeal has been received from the United States court receiver now operating the line for assistance, together with a petition also from the Dallas, Texas, Chamber of Commerce, the secretary said.

WARNED NOT TO POST STRIKE NOTICES

TOPEKA, KANSAS, July 14.—(By the Associated Press)—Warning that union officials who transmit or post strike notices for the proposed strike of railway stationery engineers, Bremen and others, will be prosecuted under the industrial court act, was announced today by Governor H. J. Allen, upon being advised that the strike call for next Monday morning had been issued by the union president in Chicago.

B. & O. Seeks Injunction

INDIANAPOLIS, IND., July 14.—(By the Associated Press)—Charging interference with interstate commerce and the transportation of the United States mails, the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad Company filed a petition for a temporary restraining order in the United States district court here today. Fifty-six defendants, including the organizations, officers and individual members of the railroad unions on strike, are named in the petition. When the petition was filed it was understood that the hearing would be held in Hammond, Indiana, before Federal Judge Francis E. Baker, of Chicago.

The Big Four Railroad filed a similar suit a few minutes later against the International Association of Machinists, naming approximately 500 individuals as defendants. Judge Baker also will hear this case at Hammond, it is understood here.

To Investigate Strike Situation

AUSTIN, TEXAS, July 14.—(By the Associated Press)—Thomas D. Barton, adjutant general of Texas, left here early today for Denison, to investigate the railroad shopmen's strike situation and to make a report to Governor Neff. He was accompanied by Tom Hickman, Texas ranger captain, and will reach Denison late today. The investigation will be made upon instructions from Governor Neff.

Engine "Goes Dead"; Crew Deserts

GALLIPOLIS, O., July 14.—Asserting that the engine had "gone dead," the crew of a south bound Hocking Valley freight train ran the train into a siding at Bidwell, north of this city, last evening and deserted it.

Jewell Declares "Strikers Have Railroads In A Hole"

CHICAGO, July 14.—(By the Associated Press)—A strike bulletin sent out today by B. M. Jewell, head of the striking railway shopmen, declares the strikers "have the railroads in a hole." Here are the facts summarized, comprising President Jewell said, "our strategic position."

"Industrial and business conditions throughout the country are picking up strongly. Steel and iron production is steadily increasing and activity and preparations for further activity in all other lines are increasing. Duns and Bradstreet's report steadily betterment of conditions all along the line.

"This means the railroads have to carry a tremendous amount of freight in the next few months. Since the beginning of the year earnings and business have increased tremendously over a corresponding period last year.

"The present demand for rolling stock is about 300 per cent more than the last five years' average and demand for locomotives is also increasing. The prolonged coal strike means there has got to be a tremendous movement of coal between now and December in order to supply both domestic users, industrial concerns and public utilities.

"Over a week ago the United States Geological Survey reported the existing coal reserves are the lowest they can possibly go without endangering the future regular supply. The threatened strike of seamen on the Great Lakes, if it happens, will probably throw still more burden of moving coal on the railroads.

"The latest reports of the condition of railroad equipment, those for April, show the percentage of bad order locomotives ranging from 12 per cent on the L. & N. to 39 per cent on the M. K. & T., and bad order cars from 5 per cent on the Norfolk & Western to 38.2 per cent on the Pittsburgh and Lake Erie.

"Outside contractors can not handle all this repair work and most of the roads are far enough from the contractors' shops so that the problem of hauling bad order equipment to the contractors is a big one. Demand for labor is increasing in outside industries and that means

Harding And Cabinet Have Conference On Rail Strike

WASHINGTON, July 14.—(By The Associated Press)—President Harding and his advisers again today devoted a cabinet session to the rail and coal strikes.

Several of the cabinet officials arrived at the White House for the session bearing reports on the two industrial disturbances. Postmaster General Work had several reports on the mail situation as affected by the rail strike. Attorney General Daugherty said he had about a hundred telegrams, the nature of which he would not disclose. Secretaries Hoover and Davis had ready for presentation the latest information on the government's proposal for arbitration of the coal strike, and Secretary Weeks was prepared to discuss possible action to maintain interstate commerce and transportation of the mails in accordance with the president's recent warning proclamation.

Secretary Weeks said he had received no advice from C. E. Schaft, receiver for the M. K. & T. railroad, who was advised late yesterday by the government to make another request of Governor Neff, of Texas, for protection by state troops on the carrier's property, now in the hands of a receiver appointed by a federal court. The expectation at the war department, however, was that some report would be received during the day.

J. P. Noonan, president of the International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers, the members of which organization represent one of the six crafts of railway workers on strike, declared upon his arrival in Washington today from Chicago that calling out of the troops to cope with the railroad strike situation would hurt rather than aid the government in its efforts to deal with the situation. Many union workers throughout the country, he said, would leave their posts if forced to work under military protection.

Mr. Noonan charged that some of the railroads were annulling mail trains purposely in an effort to force the government's hand and were refusing to meet with the striking workers in an effort to force the men into conference with government officials. This is being done, he said, to keep up the appearance that the striking shopmen are in revolt against the government and not the railroads.

President Harding was described by White House callers today as quite hopeful over the rail strike situation and confident that Chairman Hooper, of the railroad labor board, would be able soon to work out a solution satisfactory to all concerned.

Secretaries Fall and Weeks and Attorney General Daugherty remained in conference with the president after the other cabinet members had left the White House, but the nature of the discussion beyond the fact that it related to the rail and coal strikes was not revealed.

Attorney General Daugherty discussed the railstrike situation rather optimistically on leaving the White House. He said state executives in some cases did not appear to be co-operating with the federal government as they should, but did not mention instances. Other state officials, he said, were giving very satisfactory co-operation. Mr. Daugherty asserted that he had not received the request of United States Marshal George Stauffer, of Cleveland, for 1,400 deputy marshals for duty in the northern district of Ohio, but added that it might have reached the department during the cabinet meeting. He would not say what action he would take on the request, although it has been the policy of the department of justice to give United States marshals wide latitude in the deputizing of assistants.

Special Deputies To Protect Mails
 NEW YORK, July 14.—(By the Associated Press)—Despatching of special deputies for the protection of the mails to various strike centers of New Jersey today had a cheering effect for those responsible for that end of the railroad service in the Metropolitan district.

that the railroads can not get enough men to replace those now on strike. "All this means that time is with us. Every day we hold out weakens the railroads and strengthens our hand. Hold on, brothers."

Strike Threats From Maintenance Employees
 CHICAGO, July 14.—(By the Associated Press)—Strike threats by maintenance of way employees, broke out again today, bringing the rail strike to a new crisis as it neared the end of its second week.

Fresh outbreaks of violence, notably in Texas, Oklahoma and Missouri; President Harding's determined steps to keep the mails moving, and informal negotiations for a settlement of the shopmen's strike on 17 roads in the northwest were among other important developments of the last 24 hours.

Pressure by many of his general chairmen upon E. F. Grable, president of the United Brotherhood of Maintenance of Way Employees and Railway Shop Laborers, pushed the common labor problem to the front again.

Mr. Grable arrived in Chicago while threats to disregard his refusal to join the walk-out came from within his organization. The general chairmen, he asserted, had no authority to call a strike and he indicated an intention to remain firm in his refusal to sanction a strike, and asserted that he had no further grievances at present to take before the United States Railroad Labor Board.

Northwestern Group May Settle
 The new crisis caused by threats of the maintenance men arrived as peace moves to end the shopmen's strike had apparently slowed up, with the exception of the conference at St. Paul, which lent the only hopeful air to the situation. The initial St. Paul conference brought no definite results, but both sides admitted that negotiations gave promise of a settlement of the strike on the 17 roads of the northwestern group, possibly within 48 hours on a national basis.

Chairman Hooper, of the labor board, who announced formulation of new plans for ending the strike, was closely watched for his next move for peace.

State troops guarded every approach to the properties of the Missouri-Pacific Railroad at Poplar Bluffs, Missouri, today.

Governor Refuses To Call Troops
 In Texas, which became a focus of interest when Governor Neff expressed reluctance to call out state troops to protect government property at the Denison, Texas, terminal of the M. K. & T. lines, use of federal troops was indicated should force become necessary.

Minor officials at Denison were in touch with the governor, the state executive announced, adding he was given to understand from those on the ground no violence was imminent.

Troops Held In Readiness
 Troops of the second division at Camp Travis, San Antonio, meanwhile, were being held in readiness for any emergency, following orders to Major General John L. Hines, eighth corps area, from the war department.

At Gary, Indiana, a crowd of strikers stormed a street car in search of strike-breakers. Restraining orders were issued to the Toledo, St. Louis and Western at East St. Louis, Illinois.

Strike orders went out to clerks on the Chesapeake and Ohio, according to reports from Richmond, Virginia. One hundred and three striking shopmen, including many craft leaders, were summoned to appear in federal court July 17, in connection with injunctions granted the Louisville and Nashville and the Southern Pacific Railroads.

Games This Week
Friday, July 14—N. & W. vs Central Labor.

In a game that was as top-sided as a battered washbowl, the Excelsiorites handed the N. & W. team an 8 to 1 liding, last evening, before a large number of fans. Mr. Greene, the stocky bull hurler for the Shoemakers, was a total puzzle to the Railroaders, allowing but four hits, one of which came in the closing chapter of play, being propelled from the bat of Brukenan Walts and saving the losers from gathering a row of eight.

On the other hand, Floyd Meyers who felled for the N. & W. gang, was easy for the Shoemakers, Banfield leading the assault with four hits in five attempts. Banfield gathered two singles, a double and triple, and was pretty tolerably satisfied with his evening's performance with the mace. "Ted" Doherty and Jeanguenat grabbed off a couple of hits, the latter securing a triple. The play-off of Excelsior and Doherty for the victors, was high class in every way. While Champ Cooper turned in a very off fielding game for the losers, Sowards was good, too.

The Excelsiorites who are going good and strong, jumped onto Meyers right off the reel, when three straight singles were good for one run in the opening frame. Their largest inning was the fifth when they shoed four "large and ornate" runs over the plate. Four hits were mixed up with a walk and base on balls, seasoned with a couple of errors—bad medicine for the Railroaders. Manager Wells relieved Meyers in the sixth and got by without being scored upon. Wells one of the most versatile players in the league, and while he plays ball all the time and never gives up, it seems as though it is impossible to get the Railroaders going properly.

The game was reeled off in this fashion:

FIRST INNING
Banfield rolled to Meyers. Weber singled to center. Doherty singled to right. Barber singled to middle. Weber scoring. Hengen rolled to third. Jeanguenat was tossed out by Sowards. One run, three hits, no errors.

SECOND INNING
Excelsior lined to C. Cooper. Cunningham fanned. Greene rolled to Sowards. No runs, no hits, no errors. Shoemaker was tossed out by Doherty. E. Cooper was tossed out by Sowards. Hics fanned. No runs, no hits, no errors.

THIRD INNING
Banfield tripled to middle, and scored on a passed ball. Weber walked, and took second on a wild pitch. Doherty rolled to Conwell. Barber hit to third and Weber was tossed out at the plate, running the gauntlet until Barber reached third. Hengen lined to third. One run, one hit, no errors.

FOURTH INNING
Jeanguenat singled to middle. Excelsior rolled to third. Shoemaker tripled to middle. Jeanguenat scoring. Greene fanned. Banfield doubled to middle. Cunningham scoring. Weber rolled to short. Two runs, three hits, no errors.

FIFTH INNING
Doherty singled to short. Barber fanned. E. Cooper. Hengen singled last third, the ball going through Shoemaker. Doherty scoring. Jeanguenat tripled to middle. Hengen scoring. Excelsior scored. No runs, no hits, no errors.

SIXTH INNING
Wells went to the mound for the Railroaders. Doherty walked. Barber singled to E. Cooper. Hengen fanned to third. Doherty and Jeanguenat went to third on Fannin's error. Jeanguenat fanned. No runs, no hits, no errors.

SEVENTH INNING
Excelsior fanned, but Conwell who had gone behind the bat, missed the third strike. Excelsior stole. Cunningham fanned to E. Cooper and Excelsior was nailed at the third cushion. Greene doubled to right. Banfield hit out a hit to short, his fourth hit. Weber walked. Doherty fanned. No runs, no hits, no errors.

EIGHTH INNING
E. Cooper lined to Excelsior. Hics was tossed out by Doherty. Fannin fanned. No runs, no hits, no errors.

NINTH INNING
Excelsior scored. No runs, no hits, no errors.

TENTH INNING
Excelsior scored. No runs, no hits, no errors.

ELEVENTH INNING
Excelsior scored. No runs, no hits, no errors.

Twelfth Inning
Excelsior scored. No runs, no hits, no errors.

Thirteenth Inning
Excelsior scored. No runs, no hits, no errors.

Fourteenth Inning
Excelsior scored. No runs, no hits, no errors.

Fifteenth Inning

NATIONAL LEAGUE DROP ONE

CINCINNATI, O., July 14.—The Reds failed to hit Vance at timely moments Thursday, while Coach was battered freely when hits-snowed runs. Meiser, Brooklyn won the game by a score of four to three, stopping the winning streak of the Reds. Mitchell hit a home run in the fourth inning, scoring a man ahead of him. The score:

Win Pennant
Troop 3 of the First Presbyterian Church, won the championship of the Boy Scout Baseball League when they defeated Troop 1 of the same church in the deciding game, 10 to 8. Evans, for Troop 1 pitched airtight ball the first few innings, while his team mates took very kindly to the offerings of Glascock, scoring four runs the first inning. Troop Three has a habit of fighting till the last whistle, and because of that spirit, overcame Troop 1's lead and won their third pennant this year, and their ninth pennant since Mr. Gillilan formed the troop three years ago.

WINS HANDICAP
WINDSOR, ONT., July 14.—Boniface, carrying top weight of 127 pounds, won the $10,000 Frontier Handicap, feature event of the opening Thursday of Windsor Jockey club season. Registrar carrying 107 pounds was second and Planet was third. The time for the mile and one eighth was 1:52.

INDIAN COP
BOSTON, July 14.—Jim Lindsey relieved Uhl in sixth inning Thursday and held Boston to one hit for the rest of the game which Cleveland won 4 to 2. The two winning runs were scored in the eighth, when the bases full and two out, J. Sewell hit to Burns who threw to W. Collins. The Red Sox pitcher collided with Sewell at first and his foot was injured, but Sewell was ruled safe. The score:

ATTACKING THE PRIMARY

EVEN while echoes remain of the shouting for the "progressive" victories in recent primary elections, a new war is declared upon the new-fangled idea and return is demanded to the time-honored—or otherwise—convention system. It is probable that as other primaries are held other foes will be made. Every primary convinces one or more candidates that it is an unmitigated evil.

When Secretary Weeks berated the primary system in his gloomy address the other day, his expression was hailed as the natural reaction of a reactionary made philosophic by much brooding upon commencement addresses. Senator New—soon it will be former Senator New, now rallies round the flag to denounce the primary as un-American, bolshevik and generally disreputable. Senator New says that he once believed in the primary method but that his defeat by Beveridge a few weeks ago proved to him that it is a menace to our institutions.

Aside from the fact of his defeat in the recent Indiana primary election, Senator New has two indictments of the system. First, it is too costly. Newberry, he says, could have been nominated for one-fifth what he spent had the nomination been made in a convention. Second, he points out, "men are nominated for office who under the convention system would not have a look-in." No doubt under the convention system New would have been re-nominated.

The garden variety of citizen may be led to remark that, if the primary compelled Newberry to spend $250,000 for the nomination while a convention would have done the job for $50,000, the primary is about five times as desirable as the convention. Any method that makes it difficult for a Newberry to get into the senate is to be welcomed. Again, there is gratification in the thought that men are nominated by the primary who "wouldn't have a look-in in a convention." That is exactly why the primary method was instituted.

The direct primary does away with decisions by a little handful of intriguers behind locked doors, or at least makes it more difficult to give validity to such decisions. The worst that can be said for the direct primary reserves to the people the right to make their own mistakes.

The primary will not suffer by the attacks of the New's and the other disgruntled reactionaries. The maudlin lament of the defeated Indiana senator will provoke only raucous laughter in the breasts of the untamed and irreverent. The defenders of the direct primary will ask nothing better than the opposition of all the New's and all the Newberry's.

GERMANY'S DESPERATE PLAY

AN interesting situation would be created by an official German declaration of the country's bankruptcy. It would be unparalleled in that the repudiation would be not merely of ordinary indebtedness. The reparations claims of Germany's war victims occupy a preferred position in such degree that nothing more than default on a single payment is needed to justify seizure of the country. To some extent there will be seizure, we may be sure, but that this will result in satisfaction of the French claims, for instance, is very doubtful.

A confession of bankruptcy by Germany would amount to an admission of ineptitude in management of the nation's affairs. The indicated treatment would be a "receivership," something never before undertaken in the case of a country of any magnitude. The purpose of a receivership would be to recognize the German fiscal structure to the end that Germany might pay her debts. It would be for the benefit of creditors primarily. That the creditors' interests might be served it would be essential to put Germany "on its feet." At the end of the receivership Germany would be found more substantial than some of its present creditors desire it to be. And these latter would have contributed to the rehabilitation at no little cost to themselves, probably.

Leaving aside all questions of German defiance of her conquerors, of downright dishonesty in the management of her affairs with purpose to cheat those with just claims against her, it will appear that Germany's state, if as represented in current reports, is a bit more favorable to the late enemy than it would have been had a somewhat different course been followed by the allies from the beginning of the attempt to make her pay as she should.

Now that General Charles G. Dawes is back home, he might devote some of his executive talents and vocabulary to bringing a larger measure of respectability to Chicago.

Many of those who complain most bitterly about loss of personal liberty still feel that they have the personal liberty to violate the prohibition law.

A Texas jury has decided that a father has a right to spank his 16-year-old daughter, probably because he neglected to do it at the proper age.

Dempsey and Willard, having heard that "one is born every minute," will meet again. Most of them will be there.

Bill Taft Pipes George Harvey's Lid

Pipe George Harvey's gray topper! Ain't it the hen's cackle? Ex-President Taft (on Harvey's left) and Mrs. Taft went to see George Washington's home at Sulgrave Manor, England, but the ambassador's hat detracted their attention considerably.

SAMSON BURNS THE CORN

AT the time of wheat harvest Samson came to visit his wife. Her father would not let him go into the house, for he thought that Samson hated her and she had become the wife of another. Samson was very angry. He went out and caught three hundred foxes and tied fire brands to their tails and let them go into the fields and vineyards. When the Philistines found out who had done this they burnt her and her father. Samson fought the Philistines, slaying thousands, then went and dwelt in the top of a rock called Etam.

New York-Day-By-Day

BY G. O. MONTYRE

NEW YORK, July 14—Thoughts while strolling around New York: Broadway's evening glow brushes the heavens. The White Way Zodiac. Embellishing Eternal Babylon. In electric lights a cherubic face puffs a pipe. And a Diana swings on a trapeze. Evening idlers line the curbs. Comedians all!

The shabby hotel look-outs take their stands in the Forties. Mercantile lights shed their ghastly rays in quick-lunch, drink stand and hair dressing parlor. Wheeling beggars cringe in doorways. And they call it the gayest street in the world.

Wish the hurdy gurdies would quit that yoo-hooing song. Something different. An orchestra in a one flight up tailoring shop. Tempus does fugit. Eight o'clock and the morning papers are out. Wilton Lackaye. Has the face of a tired blood-hound.

Wonder how much a million dollar movie costs. Silver turbans the flapper's latest. There goes the lightest priced hotel chef in town. Looks like a country squire. And uses snuff. The chain drug stores are offering midnight supper dancing.

Brownie's old chop house. Hallowed by fruity memories. John L. Sullivan used to go there for his dessert—a Thome steak. And across the way the Poodle Dog. Where Weber and Fields ate their midnight lunch. The Metropolitan in ghostly summer gloom. Will it ever be the same without Caruso?

Whitened faces with cherry red lips. Seeking the answering smile. Youth heralding the wisdom of ages. There's the prize Dumb Ike. He thought his penny would work a gum vending machine. And still they continue to build colleges.

Ah! This is worth staying out late to see. Drooping mustache. Single eye-glass. Lavender uppers. Brown velvet and cream derby. None other I take it than Chalmers Bottomley from Wapping Stairs, Slopping-ham. Priceless old bean. Or something.

Freeport, L. I., the theatrical colony, stepped into the first pages with a "shooting lawn party." When the reporters got there they found an array of sprightly young women with calm eyes and a total absence of diffidence posed upon the lawn. White photographers snapped cameras and compliments one young lady grinned: "Ain't we getting just like Hollywood?"

Incidentally the lady who shot her husband furnished a title for Tin Pan Alley songsters when the revolver exploded. She shouted: "Daddy, daddy, I've shot my sweet daddy now!"

New York's cliff dwellers are not immune from the beauty of dying sun. At eventide the apartment roof-tops are filled with little groups who gaze out over the shoulder high parapets to watch the glowing splendor of the fading day. On many of the roofs are croquet grounds and tennis courts.

It is not the country but it presents little cross sections of crowded city life far removed from the jazz halls and musical comedy world.

A New York lady returning from a visit out of town left a toilet case in the taxicab when she arrived at her apartment. The taxicab driver was found an hour later, remembered the fare who had departed from the cab with the case and drove the owner to the address. The toilet case was returned to the owner but a bottle of perfume was missing. As it was expensive perfume the owner notified the police and when they went to the address they found three men and two women drinking perfume cocktails.

Mr. Hen Pecked was being examined for life insurance. "Not a fast liver, are you?" asked the physician. "No," he answered. "Married?" "Yes, sir," he answered. "You don't dissipate, do you?" questioned the physician. At that the man hesitated a moment, looked a bit frightened, then replied in a small, piping voice, "I sometimes chew a little gum."

You do not, unless infirm, lean upon the arm of the gentleman who escorts you by day, though after dark you may properly accept his support.

When two women are escorted by one man the women walk side by side and the man takes his place on the outside. For him to walk in the center is provincial and in bad taste.
